

Williamson County
Relocation & Expansion List
July 1, 2003 - June 30, 2004

Company Name	City of Location	County of Location	Expansion or Relocation	Number of New Jobs	Square footage	Description of operation	Type of company
Ardent Health Services	Brentwood	Williamson	Expansion	30	35,000	Nashville-based Ardent Health Services has leased 35,000 SF of space in the former Service Merchandise building in Brentwood to expand its information services department from 85 to 115 employees. This office will serve as the information services for all of their 27 hospitals in 12 states.	Data center for health care services HQ.
Associates Closing & Title	Brentwood	Williamson	Expansion	14	1,500	Associates Closing and Title, a division of Wilson & Associates, PLLC based in Little Rock, Ark. has expanded their Nashville office into a full-service closing and title operation. The 1500 SF office located at 100 Winner's Circle in Brentwood, TN will be adding 14 new title researchers.	Full Service Closing & Title Operations
Health Management Corporation	Franklin	Williamson	Expansion	25	0	Richmond Virginia-based Health Management Corporation is expanding their Franklin call center operation by 25 nurses this year. The operation, which is a leader in the disease management sector, is staffed entirely by licensed nurses. The firm opened operations here in 2002 with 5 staff members.	Health Care Services Company
Rivals.com	Brentwood	Williamson	Expansion	0	10,000	Rivals.com is tripling its Brentwood headquarters space and has signed exclusive reporting deals with Nike and Adidas. Rivals is an online network of recruiting and team-specific college sports web sites. Annual revenue for '03 anticipated at $12 million. New space is in the Creekside Crossing Building in Maryland Farms	Tech compnay headquarters expansion
Tractor Supply Co.	Brentwood	Williamson	Expansion	0	40,000	Tractor Supply's HQ in the Nashville area will soon be expanded and consolidated into new offices in Brentwood. The company currently occupying offices in three separate buildings, will expand its SF to 100,000 SF to accommodate its recent and expected growth.	Retail company headquarters expansion
Louisiana-Pacific Corp.	Nashville & Franklin	Davidson & Williamson	Relocation	222	140,000	Portland, Ore.-based Louisiana-Pacific, a $1.2 billion building supply firm has chosen Nashville for its new headquarters. The company will also consolidate other offices to Nashville, including Charlotte, Chicago, and Houston. Firm has leased 80,000 square feet in the Bank of America building in downtown Nashville, and purchased a 60,000 square foot R&D facility in Williamson County, Franklin.	Headquarters & R&D for building supply materials, primarily wood products
Bancorp South	Franklin/Brentwood	Williamson	Relocation	10	5,000	Mississippi's largest bank has entered the Middle Tennessee market with plans for 10 branches on the drawing board. Economic growth and demographics drew Bancorp South to Brentwood, where it opened a loan production office and residential mortgage center. The bank has $10.2 billion of assets.	Financial Services
Big Idea Productions	Franklin	Williamson	Relocation	30	25,000	Relocation of media company corporate headquarters from Chicago to Nashville. Company is producer of the "Veggie Tales" animated film series, which is the second most popular children's video line in America. Parent company is Classic Media based in NY. Firm also produces books, apparel, cd's and other licensed products.	Animation and Film Production corporate headquarters
Business Information Group, Inc.	Franklin	Williamson	Relocation	20	5,000	Application development company which targets clients in the entertainment, healthcare and manufacturing sectors is opening a 20-person sales and software engineering center. This is the firm's second Tennessee operation. They operated a remote center here prior to this office opening.	Computer systems related services and software application development

CLARCOR Inc.	Franklin	Williamson	Relocation	50	28,000	CLARCOR Inc., a manufacturer of filtration products worldwide, will move its HQ from Rockford, IL to the Nashville area in an effort to be more centrally located to its various US operations. CEO Norm Johnson also credited the Nashville area's diverse economy, airport, and higher education community as attractive elements that helped seal their decision to relocate. The move will involve more than 50 jobs. CLARCOR, with a current market capitalization of $1.1 billion, had revenue of more than $750 million in 2003.	Corporate headquarters for filtration products manufacturer
Philips Medical Systems	Franklin	Williamson	Relocation	40	10,000	Philips Medical will be operating its comprehensive multi-vendor services and business from the Nashville area. 40 people on staff to date, located at 501 Corporate Centre Drive in Franklin, TN.	Health Care Services Company

Totals - Relocations & Expansions Combined

441299,500

JobsSquare Feet